

*T*hank you!

Just a note of thanks to all of you for helping to make the December 12th wedding of Erin Lindquist & Will Merritt, very special.

We believe that we chose the best companies, businesses, and people available for our event. Because we knew you all personally, and felt very comfortable with the work that you do, most of you were only given the instructions to “make it different” or “make it special” or even “just do what you do best” – and of course you did!

In this regard, we believe networking is a powerful tool, and want to introduce you to each other for future reference. (Please see the second sheet for a list of all the fantastic people we have come to rely on over the years.)

Thank you for your extra-special touches and attention to detail!
